This Week's Service

Everyone is welcome to our service this week, whether joining us in person or online.

This week, we have another sermon in our series "What Kind of Church Are We?". This is based on 2 Corinthians 8:1-15 and titled "A Church That Gives"

Attending Services in Person

For the time being, we still need to ask you to follow certain guidelines about face masks, hand sanitiser, social distancing etc. Please see our website for the latest details.

Online Services

We will continue to broadcast services live via Zoom for the foreseeable future. Please join us online from 10:35am each Sunday.

Meeting ID: 875 4679 3464 - Password: 169955.

A video recording of the latest sermon is available on the church website.

Flower Rota

We are keen to start the flower rota up again. This works by selecting a date & putting flowers in the church either to remember a happy occasion or in memory of someone or if you would just like to give the flowers one week to enhance our church on a Sunday morning.

It doesn't mean you have to arrange the flowers but we would like to encourage as many as possible to do this. It doesn't have to be a fantastic arrangement.

The flowers are then given each week to someone who is suffering/bereaved or as a thank you to one of our church fellowship or someone who has a link with us. This is a good way to show we care for others.

If you can help in this way or would like to know more please speak to Lesley Sallet or Ann Ellis. Thank you.

Save the Date - 13th November 2021 - 9:00-10:00am

If you're interested in finding out more about the practicalities of faith-sharing why not attend this Zoom seminar directly after your Saturday morning cuppa?

We'll hear from Malcolm Riley - a Northamptonian by origin - who is now pastor of Trinity Church Central London. The Lord has built this church from ground zero through evangelistic ministries into a variety of different people groups. Malcolm will give us practical insights based on his experiences and will take our questions in an open forum.

Zoom details will be given nearer the date. It would be helpful if you could let Kevin (kevinappleton@aol.com) know if you're planning to attend.
